

YTIA “FIESTA” Art Contest Rules

Objectives:

- To have a little fun.
- To share your skills with others.
- To win a prize and a little recognition!

One entry per category per youth. Each entry must be one of the following... a photograph, painting or drawing of some sort of COLORFUL OBJECT (or person!). See specifics below.

All entries must be the work of youth between the ages of 13 and 19, who are currently in foster care. Each entry must have the following information...

Full Name and Age.

Contact information must include, phone number, email address, and either caregiver, caseworker or PAL staff name with a phone number.

Title of the entry.

Entries must be provided to YTIA by 5:00PM Friday, March 29, 2019

Contact YTIA at 210-256-1888, or email - ytia2009@gmail.com

You can also contact, Becky Brooks 210-241-8085

Rules for photographs...

1. Photo will be no larger than 8"x10", orientation can either be portrait (vertical) or landscape (horizontal). No mounting/framing is required.
2. Photo can be either Color or Black & White (but be careful because there has to be lots of contrast so we can tell that it's colorful).

Rules for paintings or drawings...

1. Painting or drawing will be no larger than 16"x20", orientation can either be portrait (vertical) or landscape (horizontal). No mounting/framing is required.
2. The following renderings can be used . . . watercolor, charcoal, oil, acrylic, pastels, pen and ink, or pencil rendering of something colorful.

Judging...

Entries will be judged on the following categories...

1. Creativity – the expression of imagination, idea, message or thought.
2. Impact of the image – the sense someone has when viewing the image for the first time.
3. Composition – brings the visual elements together, gets the viewer to look where the artist intends.
4. Does it tell a story? Does the image evoke imagination? Each viewer may see it differently.

Use your imagination!!!!

Prizes and ribbons will be awarded at our pre-Fiesta event on April 6th (details forthcoming). Winners will be notified via phone or email. All artists must be prepared to surrender the artwork to YTIA for auction or display at an event, fund raiser or other YTIA gathering.
